An extract of clauses 12, 14 and 18 and the Second Schedule to the Andhra State Bill, 1953, relating to the modification of certain Assembly and Parliamentary constituencies on account of the formation of Andhra State on 1-10-1953 and the adaptation of the electoral rolls for the modified constituencies is given in the Appendix.

2. Under clauses 14 and 18 of the Bill, the electoral roll of the modified Parliamentary or Assembly constituency consists of the Parliamentary or Assembly electoral rolls, as the case may be, of all the areas included in the constituency as modified. Thus, the electoral roll of the modified constituency is obtained by including or excluding the rolls relating to the areas included in or excluded from the constituency.

Assembly constituencies:

Adoni	--	The Kowthalam and Kosigi firkas of Adoni taluk are included in the constituency.

4. The Electoral Registration Officers of the above Assembly and Parliamentary constituencies should effect the necessary changes in all the copies of the rolls with them with effect from 1-10-1953 by transferring the rolls of the areas excluded from the constituencies to the Electoral Registration Officers of the constituencies in which those areas are included. Necessary corrections should be made in the title page prefixed to the electoral roll of the constituency (for electoral area) with reference to the exclusion or inclusion of areas in the constituency. These corrections should be attested by the Electoral Registration Officer under his dated initials in the copies kept under ℄ his safe custody with reference to rule 24(3) of the Representation of the People (Preparation of Electoral Rolls) Rules, 1950; the correction should also be carried out in all spare copies of the rolls.

The Electoral Registration Officers should also send authenticated copies of the rolls with the changes effected to the respective Returning Officers, withdrawing the existing copies of the rolls with them.

5. The Electoral Registration Officers concerned should send a report to the appropriate Governments by 15-10-1953 of having effected the necessary changes in the rolls of the constituencies.
